

YMCA TO OFFER CHARACTER CAMP

Greenville, OH (June 30, 2008)- The YMCA of Darke County will be offering Character Camp on Monday, July 7 through Friday, July 11 from 9:00am to 3:00 pm at its Greenville branch.

“We want to offer a fun and exciting camp that 1st-4th graders will really enjoy,” says Barb Pequignot, Youth/Volunteer Director for the YMCA. Campers will participate in team building activities that focus on the four character values of the YMCA- Caring, Honesty, Respect and Responsibility. There will be a full week of group games, swimming, crafts, and a talent show. This camp is for anyone going into grades 1-4.

Participants need to bring a sack lunch and a swim suit and towel each day. Registration is $90 for members and $115 for others. Come have a blast and enjoy a full week of fun at the YMCA! For more information, contact Barb Pequignot at the YMCA, at (937) 548-3777 today!

The YMCA of Darke County is a non-profit membership association of over 5,800 members with facilities in Greenville and Versailles. The mission of the YMCA of Darke County is to develop the whole person – spirit, mind and body – through character development programs that reinforce Christian principles and that build strong kids, strong families and strong communities.
